Og Mandino, the author of The Greatest Salesman in the World said, "Always seek out the seed of triumph in every adversity". We do believe that this is one of the guiding principles and reason for Seema's tremendous success in this depressed housing market. She approaches her clients honestly with factual, current data and true concern or finding the right buyer and right house for each family. She educates all parties involved in the transaction and prevents many deals from falling apart. Her extensive experience and numerous relationships enable her to anticipate and solve problems before they arise and the deal is lost. She has become triumphant in many adverse situations.

Another guiding principle for Seema is one of professionalism. She works tirelessly and is always available and eager to answer questions and provide accurate timelines regarding the sale and/or purchase of a home. She believes passionately in what she does and does not compromise her standards or values. She is extremely knowledgeable and keeps current regarding trends in the market with particular attention to our neighborhood.

Although, we truly value Seema's competence and confidence, it is her concern for her clients and results oriented approach that led to the sale of our home and purchase of another. .. Jeron & Susan Evans
